BOUT IS ON AGAIN*Tener Not Likely to Let

Of Tinker to Dodgers

New National League Head Is Expected to Settle Wrangle Over Star Shortstop in Next Twenty-four Hours.

By Bozeman Bulger.

There is a man down in Harrisburg who stands 4 feet 4 in. in his stocking feet, and within the next twenty-four hours, that man is going to have something to say about the Red-Superba wrangle over Joe Tinker. When he does speak something is going to pop. Gov. Tener will not permit his administration to start off with two sides wrangling over a matter that was agreed upon and signed in writing. It smacks too much of the days when that kind of stuff made the National League look like a joke. Moreover, Gov. Tener was present just after Garry Herrmann and Charlie Ebbets signed that agreement in the Waldorf bar and knows that it was made in good faith.

"That's the way to do business," he smilingly remarked to them when the two magnates wrote out the agreement and signed it right out in public, without having to go into one of those mysterious sessions.

That certainly is the way to do business and those who know the new President of the National League know that he will see that business is done that way and no other.

EBBETS RIGHT IN INSISTING ON DEAL.
Incidentally, this is the first time on record that Garry Herrmann, though it may not be his fault, was ever known to be mixed up in anything that even looked like wrangling. Unless he goes through with it, regardless of what his board of directors may think, Garry might as well withdraw as Chairman of the National Commission, a body that has for its purpose the making out of sale play to help players and managers who have quarreled over contracts. The case in question, it so happens, will have to be settled by that board if the Cincinnati club does not abide by the agreement signed by Herrmann.

Charlie Ebbets is exactly right in his determination to make the Reds live up to the Tinker agreement and, if they do not recognize the authority of Herrmann to deal for them, the league might as well shut up shop. No deals or contracts made in the past would be binding. Mr. Ebbets made a proposition which was accepted and he stands ready to fulfill his obligation. Isn't that fair enough? He has been spoken and striven forward in this Tinker matter and the chances are that he will be backed up by the league.

Realizing that this kind of a wrangle

HERRMANN INSISTS
TINKER SALE WAS O. K.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 16.—The owners of the Reds are resting on their arms waiting for President Ebbets of the Brooklyn to move again in the Tinker case. Herrmann seemingly slapped his associates on the wrist to-day when he remarked: "I shall continue president of this ball club, and to my way of thinking the Tinker sale was the best and most sensible way of ending the affair." There will be hustling and bustling and muzzling of stock in the next few days. Charlie Herrmann has been wired to come hither with alacrity and a fast train, and a meeting will be held Thursday, when the mighty directors may decide that Herrmann should pay the club for the privilege of managing it.

will not do the league any good with the public Governor Tener is just the kind of man that is likely to go to it with a maul.

Garry Herrmann, by the way, probably understands more clearly now why Joe Tinker found the Cincinnati climate a little hard on his health. As manager, Joe tried to run the ball club—a foolish undertaking—and now Mr. Herrmann, just because he was elected to the job, tries to act as president. Both he and Joe ought to know better than to think that the board of directors would allow anything like a man taking care of his own job.

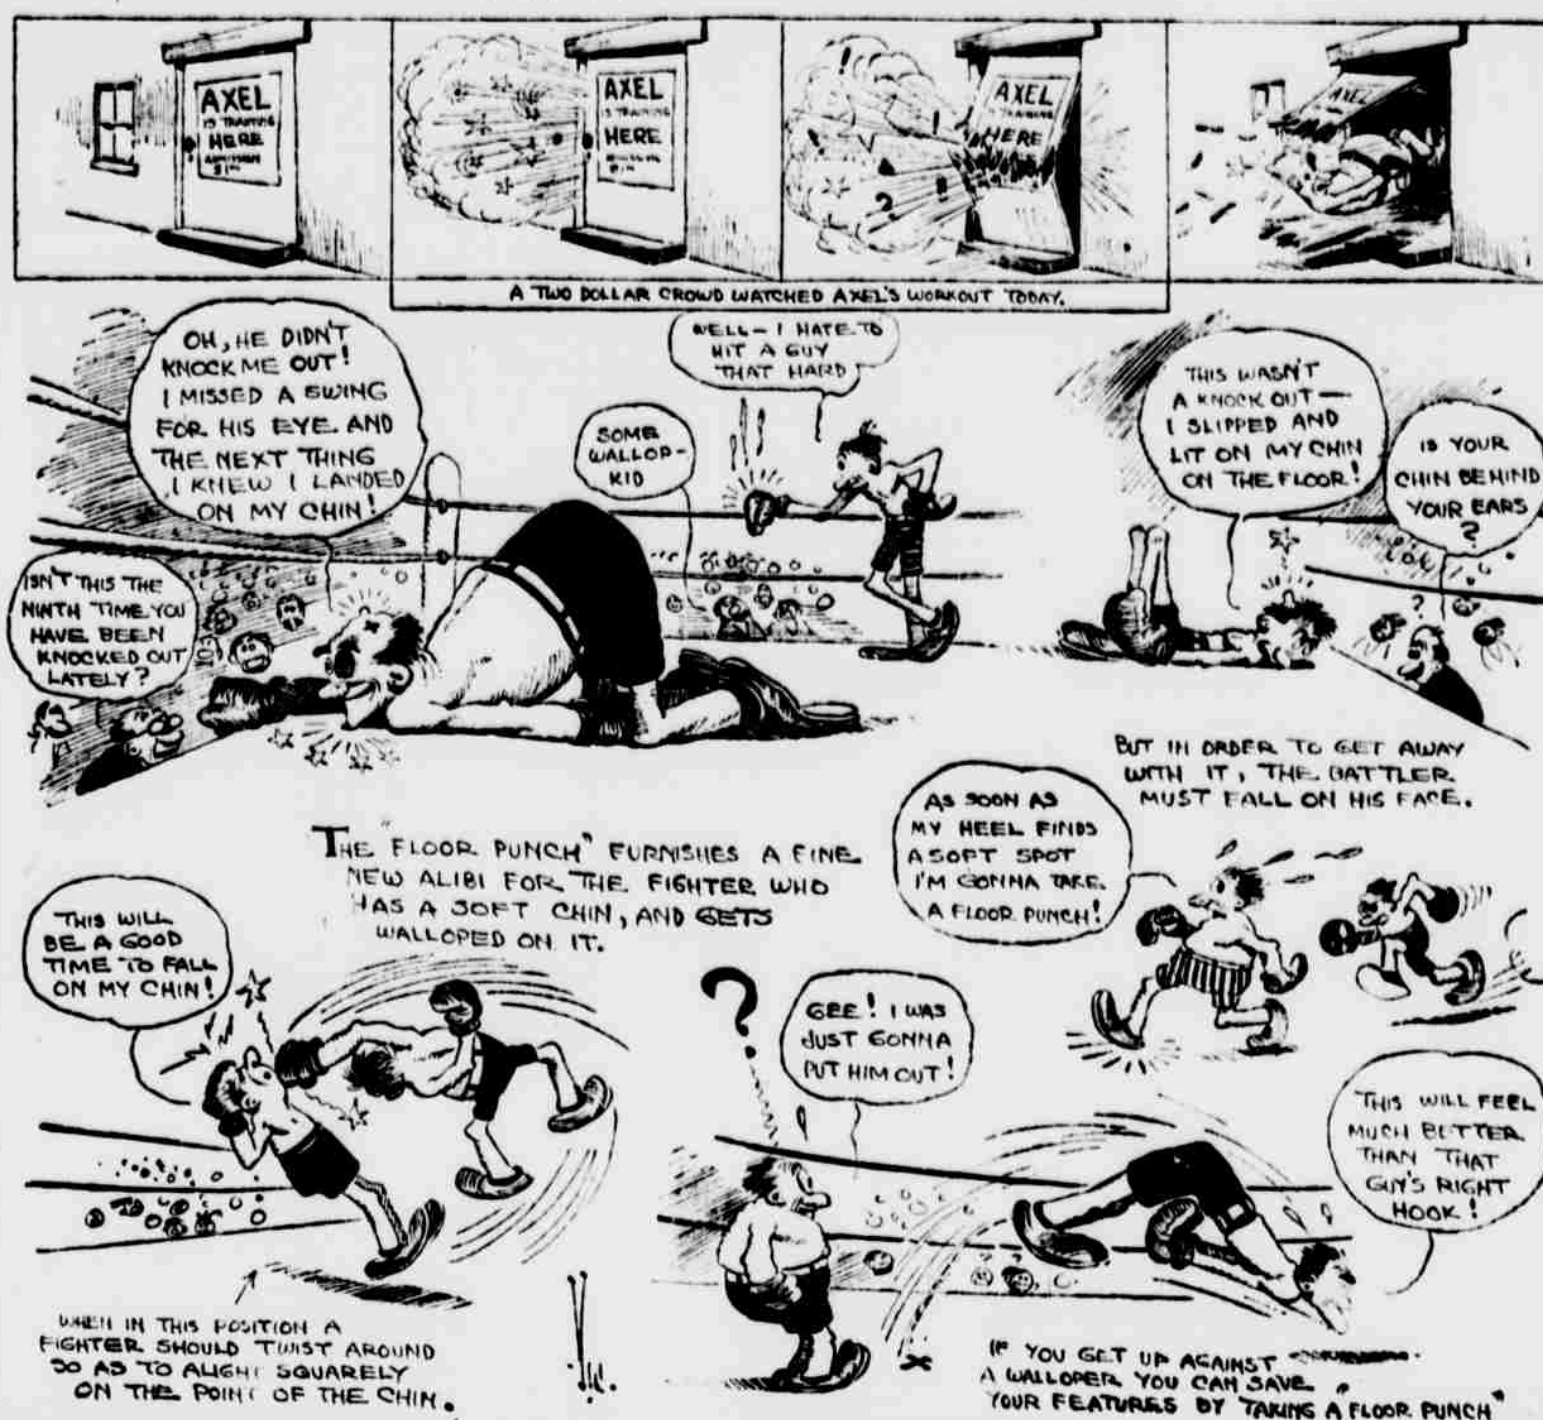

DEAL BETWEEN REDS AND GIANTS GOES.
The one bright spot in that meeting of the Cincinnati Board of Directors is that in the settlement, they unanimously endorsed the trade by which Bobby Heacker, the crack outfielder, comes to the Giants in exchange for Charlie Herrmann and Grover Hartley. That one trade, if they think there was great excitement in Redland yesterday those directors ought to have had a peek in the offices of Charles Holliday Ebbets and his neighbors in places where the public of Brooklyn gather from time to time to talk baseball. At dinner time they were running around in circles. Any number of outraged fans called up Mr. Ebbets and offered to contribute towards a fund to send the case to the highest courts. They want Joe Tinker over there and are going to have him.

Among baseball men the unanimous opinion is that Cincinnati has no case. As a rule Garry Herrmann is the popular man in matters pertaining to baseball but this time the gang is with Ebbets.

Neither Wins From Montana. George Bothner, the former light-weight champion wrestler, defeated Bill Montana in two straight falls last night in their match bout at Brown's Gymnasium. The veteran champion was too tricky for his heavier opponent and scored the first fall by a reverse body hold in 25 minutes and 15 seconds. Bothner secured the second fall in 17 minutes with a scissor-and-arm hold. The match was for a $200 side bet.

Duncan to Join I. A. A. C.

Ellis Muller, the national discus champion, has decided to join the New York A. C. and Jim Duncan, another man of discus fame, will leave the Broadhurst Field Club and cast his lot with the Irish-American A. C.

Gibbons Lets
Hirst Go Limit

(Special to The Evening World.)
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 16.—Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul welterweight, gave Joe Hirst of this city, a bad beating in a six-round bout at the Olympia A. A., but the fight only went the six rounds through Gibbons' stalling tactics. Any time after the second round Mike, on opportunities salaried to put the game local lad away, but when Joe was staggering and in a bad fix, Mike always managed to let his punches shoot over or around Joe's neck or have them miss their mark by the fraction of an inch. At no time did the local lad have a chance with the shifty Westerner.

George Lurich
Wins From Mohl

In the star bout at the Atlantic Garden A. C., George Lurich of Russia won from Fritz Mohl of Switzerland in two straight falls. Mohl's strength and aggressiveness forced Lurich to act on the defensive throughout to escape defeat. John McLaughlin, the Irish lad, won the first and third falls from Hans Lieber, after an exciting bout which aroused the wildest excitement. Alex Haggle, the clever Greek welterweight, who is anxious to meet George Lurich, won the second and third falls from Calvert Whittier, the Stock Yards Boy.
